THE ONION SONG

Hey onion, have I got news for you!

What if John Cage listened to Serbian Music Television?

Inside The world is just a great big onion...

Oh my love, my onion, I hunger for your taste.
I need your layers, I need your stench.

Cry me a river, of onion soup
and sway with me on a crouton cruise.

Fry me to the spoon,
and let me spice your onion soup.

Heard you'll be here tonight
so I put my best veg on boy I was so right.
Yams...

I feel the Maggi between you and I.
I need you to see this soup was meant to be...
Let's melt like emmental, you and I. Fondue style.

Don't leave me hungry this way
I can't eat, can't stay alive
Without your sweet pungency, oh baby
Don't leave me hungry this way, no

And so you're back, from the bread bin
Just walked in to find you back here with some breadcrumbs on your skin.

Should have changed that stupid lock
I shouldn't have let the pigeons in
Had I known for just one second you'd be back with baguette sticks!

Hey Onion, have I got news for you.

It's raining veg, halleluyah, it's raining veg, amen.
challotes, carrots, beets and leeks
garlic, turnip, corn and beans.

Other veggies may be in the pot,
But darling I smell only you.
When we sway, I smell the reek.
Dance with me, make me weep.

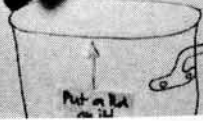

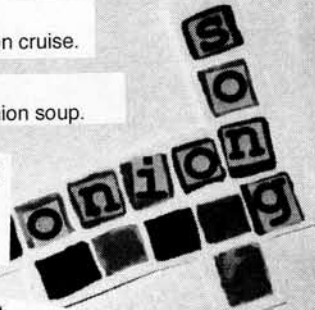

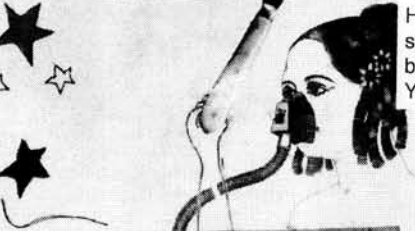

I can't get you out of my plate
your slice is all I think about.

Lonely potatoes turn to seasalt crisps.
To the open bag of the seasalt crisps.

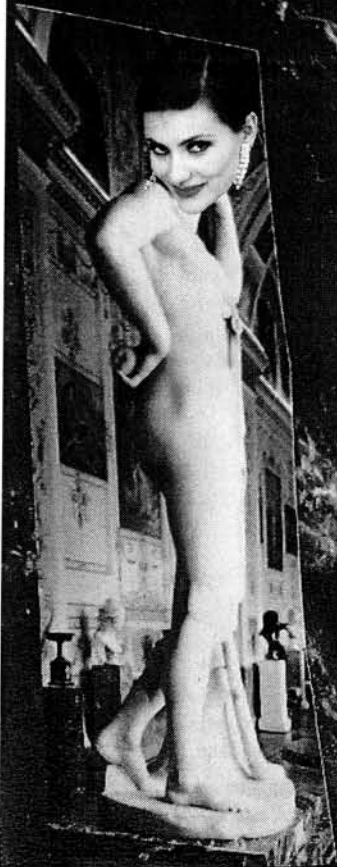

Hey big Onion!
Smell, a little oniony with me.

Onions RULE!

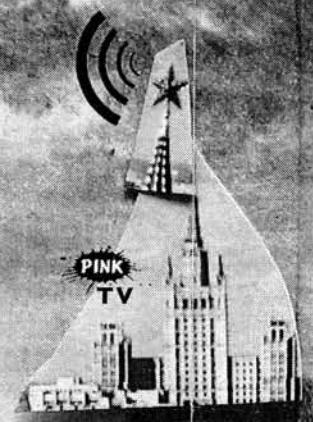

Fry-ink tonight!

What if,

ceca

John Cage

Only this article has a twist in that someone took it and 'spun' it to make a link site for Timberland Boots, hence the reference to them through the article. In the next post is the article I really wrote.....enjoy

From action to print, and now from print to action: The Ladies of the Press*, most known for their in the form of live zine making, for a change will be making print into performance! For their first ever solo show they will be transforming the Five Years space into a paper façade, straight out of their own made magazine into a series of improvised in situ performances, developing a real life tableaux, using the page as a script, over three weekends.

The printed magazine will be available at the private view, offering a “programme” of performances as well as being privy to the backstage production process from script through to rehearsal through to performance, played out in real space and time. Each performance will be a one shot take which will be compiled into a series of vignettes—pages translated into time based media.

This new body of work reflects their recent forays from print to performance, to moving image and back again. Playing with a variety of reference points such as Gilbert and Georges’ living sculptures, Kenneth Anger’s films, Sigmar Polke’s paintings, Rosemarie Trockel’s early collage installations, the literary strains of Arte Povera, OuLiPo and Fluxus, as much as concrete poetry and everything from historical avant-garde publications to fan zines, the LOTP* present their most adventurous performance to date!
